

Jim Porcher, Vice-Director

Raised on a working cattle ranch in southern New Mexico, Jim Porcher has been involved in the horse industry, as a trainer and breeder, since the 1970s.

He has trained National winners in Western Pleasure, Country English Pleasure, Show Hack, Hunter Pleasure, Halter and Working Hunters as well as National winners in Spain and International winners at the European World Cup. Jim retired from professional training in 2012 and has been reclassified as an Amateur competitor.

Jim competes in the Open Working Hunter division on his homebred Anglo-Arabians. He serves as the President of the Arabian Horse Association of New Mexico, Chair of the Region 8 Show Commission, Region 8 Vice-Director and is a Commissioner for the Arabian Sport Horse Nationals.